DAMERON

Mixing solid hardwood, white oak veneer and employing steel legs, the durability and elegance of Dameron makes for a decadent piece that can accommodate any recreation space. Every attention to detail was given from the hand-hammered metal sights to the Brunswick name plate in the leg pedestal. Made to endure with beauty & grace.
